Call to help carers back into work NEW SCHEME TO CREATE 'CARER FRIENDLY COMMUNITY'

EMPLOYERS are being urged to help unpaid carers find a route back into work, as part of a new initiative to support Honiton's unsung heroes.

The ambitious scheme aims to create a 'carer friendly community' across East Devon and prevent hardworking carers being pushed out of employment.

David Foster, a former Mayor of Honiton, is pioneering the project, which he hopes will enable carers across the district to "fulfil their personal potential".

Councillor Foster, who is now East Devon's health and wellbeing champion, gave up his job when his wife became ill during pregnancy.

His life suddenly shifted from full-time employment to round-the-clock care – and he struggled to find a job that could accommodate his family commitments.

Eventually, with support from his local church, Councillor Foster was able to find suitable employment as his wife regained her health.

But he says that many carers can become trapped in the cycle and end up locked out of work.

"I found it a real struggle to get back into the workplace because some employers were worried I would be unreliable," he said.

"My own personal self worth became pretty low and left me feeling quite down – that made it even more difficult to find work and I began to look for jobs that were beneath my skill set."

Councillor Foster is now pioneering the new scheme with a view to making sure others don't face the struggle he went through to find work.

He hopes to establish a network of local employers who will commit to helping carers back into the workplace.

The scheme will seek to connect carers who are willing to work with employers who can accommodate their circumstances.

It could open up a series of new opportunities for carers who would benefit from more flexible working hours.

Councillor Foster is now encouraging businesses to demonstrate their support by making a pledge to join the scheme.

He also wants to hear from community organisations and volunteers who could help play a part in delivering the project.

tions and volunteers who could help play a part in delivering the project.

"This is about trying to reach out to carers and make sure they feel included in the community," he said.

"When you become a 24-hour carer for somebody, you are locked into a cycle of care. You do not begrudge your loved ones but you can become isolated and lose a sense of self worth.

"That is why it is so essential that we help carers manage their work and home lives so they can fulfil their personal potential."

■ THE GLOVE IS UP | Town Crier Dave Retter raised the garlanded pole to kick off Honiton's Hot Pennies celebrations last week. Three week wait for wheelie bin emptying?

COUNCIL chiefs are considering changes to rubbish collection services that could leave residents waiting three weeks for their bins to be picked up. A new scheme designed to boost recycling rates will be trialled in parts of East Devon next month and could be rolled out elsewhere in the future.

The short-term service, for around 1,800 households in Feniton and Exmouth, will see cardboard and mixed plastics picked up from the doorstep on a weekly basis, but residents' grey wheelie bins will be collected every three weeks, instead of fortnightly. Weekly food waste collections will continue as normal.

Information is being sent out to residents this week ahead of the trial, which is designed to increase the amount that households recycle while reducing the cost of running collection services.

From the deputy editor's chair A weekend underneath the stars

WITH Philip and Jackie on leave for two-and-a-half weeks - by far the longest break they've had in the 14 years I've worked with them - a few of us here in the office prepared for a tough fortnight or so without them by making a pilgrimage across the border to Dorset's biggest music festival - Camp Festival.

I'd thought my festivaling days were over and hadn't supplemented my love of live music by bookending a day of entertainment with a night under canvas for a good five years or more.

But this year I was persuaded by a good line-up (and good company, of course) to dust off the tent and wellie boots (the latter thankfully not needed, what with the glorious weather we had over the weekend) to make the trip to Lulworth Castle.

Rapidly approaching middle age, my highlights of the weekend included some of the 'heritage' acts the bill had to offer.

Buzzcocks proved that having a beard and a bus pass on the way is no hindrance to playing blistering pop punk like it was 1978.

Alison Moyet played a fantastic, hits-filled set with plenty of Eighties classics from both her solo career and time as one half of genre defining synthpop duo Yazoo.

And a swearsy Bob Geldof roused the crowds on a sunny Sunday afternoon with his performance, featuring - as you'd expect - a number of Boomtown Rats numbers.

Our thanks to festival curators Josie and Rob Da Bank and their team for our annual invite!

Entertainment editor Rob Larcombe will review the festival in full in a future edition.

I'D ALSO like to take this opportunity to wish Philip and Jackie's eldest daughter, Zoe, all the very best for her wedding day on Saturday from myself and on behalf of the rest of the Pulman's View team.

It's also the boss' birthday, so bound to be a bumper celebration for sure!

SOUTH SOMERSET

Furious cabbies out of pocket as passengers refuse to pay fares

A 'TAXI-WATCH' group could soon be set up to prevent penny-pinching passengers from running off without paying their fares.

Furious South Somerset cabbies say they are being left out of pocket by customers who contest their fares and then dash from the vehicle.

A series of incidents have been reported to the police in recent weeks, and officers are now looking to work with taxi companies on a new scheme to put the brakes on repeat offenders.

It is understood that many of the cases where passengers refuse to pay arise from disputes over the cost of fares.

Passengers often complain about cabbies using taxi meters, which leads to arguments about the fee at the end of a journey.

Officers at South Somerset District Council's licensing team say they are aware of several complaints from customers about the meters.

SEATON

A week of fun for the air ambulance

HUNDREDS of visitors arrived in Seaton for one of the town's busiest weeks of the year, as a host of summer events marked seven days of celebrations on the seaford.

A packed week of entertainment ensured Seaton's popular Devon Air Ambulance fundraiser enjoyed another successful year, while a procession of plundering pirates took part in the traditional parade through the town centre on Friday (July 31st).

A steady stream of holidaymakers came to see Seaton's summer extravaganza in full swing, as the peak tourist period gave businesses the chance to make the most of the mid-summer boom.

And the town's fifth Devon Air Ambulance Week, organised by a team of dedicated local volunteers, was hailed as the event's most successful year yet, with helpers still trawling through collection buckets to count up the final fundraising total as Pulman's View went to press.

SIDMOUTH

Thousands of visitors transform town as top acts start Folk Week

SIDMOUTH's Folk Week celebrations are off to a flying start, with thousands of visitors transforming the town for one of the South West's premier music events.

Organisers have pledged to kick off the festival's next 60 years in fine style, following on from the sensational diamond anniversary bash 12 months ago.

The annual party, which is expected to attract tens of thousands of folk fans over the course of the week, was launched with a series of special events on Thursday evening, as Kate Rusby and Port Isaac's Fisherman's Friends took to the stage to entertain early birds.

And the party was in full swing by the weekend, as a packed programme of concerts, ceilidhs, folk dances, displays and workshops got underway.

Festival director John Braithwaite said organisers and volunteers had worked round the clock in the run-up to the event to make sure a first-class show awaited revellers.

He said: "After last year's diamond anniversary, we feel galvanized and excited to start celebrating the next 60 years of folk festivals in Sidmouth."

"Kicking off with stars like Kate Rusby and Port Isaac's Fisherman's Friends sets the bar high for the week."

Folk fans from across the country transformed the town centre over the festival's first weekend, packing the streets and lining the seaford.

Traditional morris dancers and street entertainers have brought a familiar splash of colour to proceedings, with a full line-up of top musical acts from the folk world filling the bill.

AXMINSTER

Food bank wins £1,000 grant

AXMINSTER's community food bank has been awarded a four-figure grant to continue its essential work supporting some of the town's most vulnerable people.

'Canned Sunshine', established in 2012, will benefit to the tune of £1,000 gifted by the Aviva Community Fund.

The food bank helped around 500 people last year alone, providing food, toiletries and other basic items to those most in need.

But it relies almost entirely on the generosity of local people for both volunteers and donations.

The bank's latest cash boost comes from the insurance company's dedicated community fund, which has set aside donations for more than 300 projects this year.

Canned Sunshine was one of thousands of community organisations which entered the nationwide competition, galvanising support from local people who voted for the food bank to be named among the winners.

Glowing report for Littletown Academy

LITTLETOWN Primary Academy is "thriving" under the leadership of its new principal, according to the school's latest Ofsted report.

Inspectors say pupils have a bright future ahead of them, after the academy was officially awarded 'good' status by the regulator.

The glowing report said the school was on the up, with a series of improvements helping youngsters make the most of their education.

And inspectors also heaped praise on the academy's new principal, Helen Whitehead, who took over in January.

Their report highlighted Mrs Whitehead's leadership as a key factor in the academy's upward trajectory.

"The new headteacher has made a positive impact on the school in a short time," the report said.

"She knows exactly how to improve the school and has taken swift and effective action to do so."

In the six months since her appointment, Mrs Whitehead has introduced several new initiatives to enable pupils to progress in the classroom.

The school has forged new links with the Thelma Hulbert Gallery and a string of other community organisations, while

by Jack Dixon

high achievers have been given the chance to work with professional authors.

Former students and parents have also been invited to lead assemblies tailored to helping pupils aspire to 'dream jobs' across a range of fields.

Mrs Whitehead said: "I'm delighted with the progress we have made since I came to Littletown and we welcome Ofsted's findings, which further highlight our ethos."

"I have a great team around me and we are fully committed to ensuring our students achieve their full potential in all areas."

Littletown reopened as an academy in February 2012 and now educates more than 450 pupils aged three to 11.

Its latest rating from Ofsted is the second highest available and marks continued progress under the new leadership.

Tina Sillitoe, chairman of the academy's board of governors, said she was "incredibly pleased" with the 'good' grading, which reflected the "tremendous efforts" put in by teachers this year.

She added: "Mrs Whitehead and her staff have laid solid foundations to pave the way for students to enjoy a happy and fulfilling primary school career, which will in turn stand them in good stead for secondary school and beyond."

Brewery boost for local charities

DEVON'S leading brewery has raised thousands of pounds for worthy causes following its recent silver anniversary celebrations.

The Otter Brewery, based in Lupsett, near Honiton, has collected more than £7,500 for charity.

Established in 1990 by David and Mary Ann McCaig, the family-run business marked 25 years behind the bar by supporting three local charities.

The money was raised over two nights as the brewery hosted a party for landlords, suppliers and associates, followed two days later by a black tie charity ball attended by 340 guests.

Some of the cash will be put towards the running costs of the new King's House day hospice in Honiton, while thousands more will help the Devon Air Ambulance remain in the skies this year.

The remainder of the money will go towards the Exeter Foundation, a civic trust affiliated with the Exeter Chiefs Rugby Club, which supports 18 other charities for people with physical and learning difficulties.

Patrick McCaig, sales and marketing director at Otter Brewery, presented each of the charities with a cheque for £2,555 last week.

"As a family-run business, a big part of our community work is supporting local charities that are close to our heart," said Mr McCaig.

"We chose these three specifically because of the rapport we have with them and the invaluable work they do."

Man rescued after car goes down embankment

FIREFIGHTERS rescued a man from a stranded car after it became stuck down a steep embankment near Honiton Hospital.

Emergency services were called to Marl pits Lane last Monday evening (July 27th) where a 68-year-old man was trapped inside the vehicle following a crash.

A fire crew from Honiton was assisted by a heavy rescue vehicle to lift the man from the car before paramedics treated him at the scene.

It is understood the man sustained minor injuries after the car collided with a fence and slipped down the embankment. No other vehicles were involved.

A spokesperson for the fire service said: "Upon arrival crews confirmed one private vehicle off the highway and stuck down a steep embankment with one person still within the vehicle.

"The casualty was helped from the vehicle by fire service personnel and left in the hands of paramedics."

SEATON resident Ada Higgins, known as Jenny, celebrated her 100th birthday last Friday (July 31st). ONE of East Devon's oldest traditions was celebrated in Honiton last week, as members of the community came together to mark the town's rich heritage.

High Street was packed with colourful costumes, music and stalls for Honiton's annual Charter Day event, before hundreds of children lined the streets to take part in the traditional Hot Pennies ceremony. The festivities celebrated more than 750 years of Honiton's famous street market, with both events dating back to the 13th century.

Traditional Tudor music and dancing filled the town centre during the Charter Day celebrations last Saturday (July 25th), while community clubs and organisations manned stalls on Allhallows playing field and along Northcote Lane.

The occasion was followed on Tuesday (July 28th) with the iconic penny-throwing event, with hundreds of children scrambling to collect coins thrown from the top-floor windows of High Street pubs and businesses.

Town Crier Dave Retter opened the ceremony by hoisting the garlanded pole and reciting the famous declaration that no man shall be arrested until the glove is taken down.

The origins of the tradition date back to the granting of Honiton's Royal Charter, when the protection from arrest was arranged to ensure revellers visited the town's Fair Week without fear of being locked up for their debts.

Pennies were thrown from The Volunteer Inn and The Holt, before Mr Retter marched the assembly up High Street towards Peter Betteridge The Bed Expert, the Café 102 and The Three Tuns, where the pole was attached to the top-floor window.

Paul Carter, chairman of the Hot Pennies organising committee, said the event remained a staple of Honiton's heritage.

"Maintaining old customs like the Hot Pennies Ceremony is increasingly difficult in these ever more constrained times of health and safety dictates, road closure orders and marshalling requirements.

"But the Hot Pennies Ceremony Committee remains committed to preserving the event and is grateful for the support of Honiton Town Council, together with the respective publicans as well as Peter Betteridge at the Old Pannier Market."

Charity lunch is a big hit

ESCAPING the paparazzi in a three-wheeled lime green Robin Reliant was just one of the amusing anecdotes revealed by the former personal chef to HRH Anne, the Princess Royal, at a highly successful charity ladies lunch at Beer Sailing Club.

Val Bugden-Cawsey, a well known speaker on the national public speaking stage, gave an hour-long talk to a sold-out group of almost 70 women in an event staged to raise funds for Cancer Research UK.

"This was the first time the Beer Cancer Group have arranged this type of fund raising event which replaced the Big Breakfast we normally do each year," said spokeswoman Ange Cromwell.

"After a hilarious and entertaining talk by Val Bugden-Cawsey the ladies then enjoyed a delicious fish and chip lunch supplied by the local fish shop in Beer, followed by home baked puds.

"With a very successful raffle, thanks to donations from local businesses and friends of Beer Cancer Group, we managed to raise a staggering £750 for Cancer Research UK."

Peace poster winners through to South West finals

■ THE three winners together with Head of Teaching and Learning, Ms Kate McFarlane, and Lion Janine Barradale, who presented gift vouchers to the winners

THE Seaton and District Lions Club presented their annual Peace Poster prizes this week, writes IAN BARRADALE.

Year Six children from three local primary schools — Beer, Colyton and Seaton — are invited to enter the competition by painting a poster on the years chosen theme.

For 2015 the theme chosen by Lions Clubs International was 'Share Peace' and the children were encouraged to think creatively about peace and share their vision with the world.

The posters are judged with a winning entry chosen from each school; the winner then gets judged against other entries from throughout the South West.

The winning entry of that round is judged against entries from the rest of Great Britain and Ireland, with the winner of that round then being judged alongside entries from 24 global regions.

The overall competition winner will win a cash prize of $5,000 and a trip to the next Lions International Convention, which next year will be held in Japan.

Beer council chairman allays fears over future of post box

PLANS are being drawn up to safeguard the future of the main post box in the centre of Beer.

A recent notice that the box was due to be re-located out of the heart of the village, where it is currently located outside the old post office in Fore Street, caused concern among many users.

Former postmaster Nigel Groves wants the post box removed from outside the former post office, which is also his home, as rain water bouncing off the top of it is rotting the window frame.

"I put up with it for 12 years when I ran the Post Office but I want it moved now," said Mr Groves.

Ideally it would be situated outside the new Post Office, which is now incorporated into Rock Villa Off Licence run by Ian and Jackie

by Kevin Fahey
kevinwfahey@btinternet.com

Tite, said Mr Groves, but technical problems made that impossible

That sharpened fears the post box may disappear forever from Fore Street but at the recent meeting of Beer Parish Council chairman Martin Richards said discussions were underway to relocate it outside the Mariners' Hall, on the opposite side of the entrance to the post box.

"I have had a chat with the Post Office and I am told they are more than happy to re-locate it to the Mariners' Hall," said

Councillor Richards.

"They did want it outside the new post office but apparently they can't do that as there are too many utility services under the pavement."

Councillor Richards said further talks will take place with the Post Office and the Mariners' Hall over the issue but he is optimistic that the situation can be resolved.

Shute 'stalwarts' retire from council service

SHUTE Parish Council has said goodbye to two of its stalwarts.

Derek Loud has retired after 40 years serving

■ LONG SERVICE: Mary Thomas and Andrew Moulding

the parish council as a councillor, and for several years as chairman.

Derek, who lives in Whitford, has rarely missed a meeting and has campaigned for affordable housing in the area for many years, something the council will continue to do.

Mary Thomas has decided, after a total of 21 years as parish clerk, that she wanted to retire from the role.

Having previously served as a parish councillor, Mary regained the role nine years ago when the previous clerk left.

Mary, from Shute, has been hugely important in enabling the council to do its work.

New parish clerk Carol Miltenburg said: "After the meeting Derek and Mary were presented with long service certificates as a token of appreciation by county councillor Andrew Moulding, who thanked both.

"Gifts were also presented by Shute Parish

by Anders Larsson

Council chairman Peter Rugg to say thank you for all the time they have both given on behalf of the council."

The presentations were followed by a celebratory drink and buffet.

Strong field for Hawkchurch Annual Show

ORGANISERS were delighted with the number of exhibits on display in the village hall for the Hawkchurch Annual Flower, Produce and Craft Show on Saturday, 25th July, despite unfavourable growing conditions and heavy rain the day before.

This year the flower decorators had been tasked with a light-hearted interpretation of "On the prairie" and a posy for a new baby, as well as the usual teacup and miniature arrangements. The photography subjects were 'birds' and 'reflections'. The public showing and award-giving in the afternoon were well supported.

The committee expressed their indebtedness to the judges and thanked everyone for helping to make such a successful village event.

The cups awarded were as follows: Ballinger Cup for most points: Mrs S. Lewers;

Baxter cup for vegetables/fruit: Mrs P Darch; Rose bowl for flowers: Mrs R. Blunt; Floral decoration: Mrs M Stead and Mrs H Gillen; Mini/small arrangement: Mrs S. Lewers and Mrs J Collier; Pot plant: Mrs A. Lewis; Cookery and preserves: Mrs S Lewers; Art: Mr C Loveridge; Craft: Mrs D Armstrong; Photography: Dr M Flower; Best vegetable in show: Mrs J Collier – Chilli plant; Best flower in show: Dr M Flower – Daisies; Best herb collection: Mrs V Mitchell. ■ OFFWELL School's Reception Class had an eventful day when on a trip to Lyme Regis.

As well as paddling, ice creams and a picnic the children visited Lyme Regis Aquarium where they were able to handle a starfish.

This was the highlight and Dawson, aged 5, said: "It was a bit wet and scratchy but other schools should go because it is fun."

Flower arranger recreates well known gardens for Colyford club

THE July meeting of Colyford and District Flower Club was held as usual in Colyford Memorial Hall, where members welcomed speaker Gretchen White, from Bishopsteignton, whose subject was "Glorious Gardens", with the theme coming from various gardens she had visited.

Gretchen's first idea came from Sissinghurst Castle in Kent. For the white garden she used an umbrella stand with a pot on top, using dogwood around the top and white jasmine trailing down the sides, with double lisianthus and white oriental lilies, all representing the garden arch.

The next display was for the herbaceous border from Great Dixter in Sussex. Gretchen made two matching arrangements using golden privet, hosta leaves, elaeagnus, viburnum and beautiful yellow foxtail lily, blue delphiniums, purple stocks and small sunflowers. This made a striking arrangement to represent the borders of the garden.

On her third demonstration, with an idea from the water garden at Coletton Fishacre, Kingswear, Gretchen placed a dish onto a wrought iron stand and used various grasses to represent the waterfall. Then came some epimedium, hostas, hellebores, then falling blue iris and white calla lilies for the water.

Next came an idea taken from the rose garden at Mottisfont Abbey, near Romsey, Hampshire. Using a large urn, Gretchen's surrounding foliage was some box hedging, euonymus, pink lisianthus, avalanche cream roses, red roses, pink spray roses, alchemilla mollis and lovely lace cap hydrangeas making a very pretty arrangement.

The final arrangement was dedicated to the gardens of Highgrove in Gloucestershire, with fresh green ferns and fatsia leaves used alongside large hosta leaves and rhododendron foliage, then some beautiful Anastasia green chrysanthemums and white lilies. A large piece of driftwood represented the stumps.

A vote of thanks was given by Ann Hebdon and results of the competition were announced as follows: Intermediate class – 1st Chris Penny, 2nd Kay White, 3rd Carol Hubbard; Advanced – 1st Angie Clark, 2nd Sheila Clare.

The next meeting will be held on September 1st, 2.15pm in Colyford Memorial Hall when the speaker will be Sue Neale from Ilfracombe giving a demonstration named "Show Time" followed by refreshments.

Conservation society visits honey bee farm

THIRTY-five members and guests of Axe Vale & District Conservation Society visited Blackbury Honey Farm in Southleigh. They strolled through the flowerbeds and wild flower meadows enjoying the varied flora and fauna. Some of the group are pictured with Maureen and Ken Basterfield, who with their son Dan own and manage this environmentally-friendly farm, a wonderful home for their bees.

KILMINGTON

KILMINGTON WI welcomed Helen, a visitor, to their latest meeting and, after the minutes were read and signed, Joy read a letter from the Ax-Pedition organisers thanking members for their contribution of cakes to their recent cycling event to raise funds for Hospiscare.

The autumn council meeting will be at Plymouth on October 14th where guest speakers will be Esther Rantzen, who set up Silver Line, a helpline for older people, and Julie Summers, author of "Jambusters", the story of the WI in WWII.

There are several outings planned in September in connection with the WI centenary. Members were able to watch the Queen open the proceedings at the National Federation AGM at the Albert Hall and then historian Lucy Worsley speaking.

Flower of the Month was won by Mollie with Joy second and Barbara third. Members then enjoyed cake and scones with coffee and arrangements for the Mystery Trip were finalised.

There was some discussion about a resolution for the 2016 AGM with members hoping for a resolution about the overuse of antibiotics.

There will be no meeting in August with the next on September 10th in the village hall, 7pm, when Professor Brian Kirby will give "A lighthearted look at longevity. How to live to be 110!"

SEATON

MEMBERS of Seaton WI met on a bright, sunny afternoon on July 21st for their last meeting before the summer break.

On July 14th members enjoyed a trip on the Seaton Tram including afternoon tea in the Garden Room at Colyton Station.

During the business section, Julia Bealing gave a short report on her memorable day at the WI centenary garden party at Buckingham Palace in June, and final arrangements were made for a trip on the West Somerset Railway in September.

The results of the Flower of the Month competition were: 1st Zelma Lindsay-Smith, 2nd Sheila Rumble and 3rd Jan Probert. The general competition results (a favourite photograph of Devon) were as follows: 1st Denise England and 2nd Sheila Rumble.

After refreshments the guest speaker, Rosie Giles, gave an excellent illustrated talk about her frequent visits to Uganda where she works with the Church of Uganda to improve the lives of women and children. It was a very informative description of the challenges faced by these vulnerable groups and promoted much discussion amongst the members.

The next meeting will be held on September 15th, 2.15pm at Seaton Methodist Church Hall when the talk will be about the work of the Devon Freewheelers. Visitors are very welcome to attend.

MUSBURY & WHITFORD

THE July meeting of Musbury and Whitford WI was held on the 14th at Whitford Village Hall. Apologies were taken and birthday posies given.

Axe Vale Festival team were congratulated on coming 2nd in the Perpetual Cup.

The speaker for the evening was Tony Garrick who spoke on the subject "Jersey Under the Jackboot" told from the perspective of a nine-year-old boy, who found it all most exciting. He had lots of slides of newspaper clippings from the time and black and white photos.

An invitation was received from Colyton for their garden party and members are hosting their own a cream tea at the Harbour Hotel, Sidmouth, on September 29th to celebrate the WI centenary, followed by shopping.

Congratulations were given to Margaret Clarke's team, who hosted an afternoon tea for Honiton elderly and disabled club, and to Joy and team who organised a skittles and fish and chips evening where a good profit was made for their chosen charity, Read Easy.

CLOSED SUNDAYS & MONDAYS

SEATON & DISTRICT ART SOCIETY EXHIBITION 2015

SATURDAY 8TH TO THURSDAY 13TH AUGUST

SEATON, like many towns and villages up and down the country, has a thriving society of artists who gather to work together, encourage each other, learn from one another and enjoy demonstrations and classes. And each summer Seaton's artists put on a show to exhibit and sell their work.

This year, visitors to the 43rd Exhibition by Seaton & District Art Society in Seaton Town Hall from Saturday August 8th to Thursday August 13th will see even more than the usual wide variety of media which can be used to "paint" pictures.

Alongside drawings and paintings in crayon pencils, pen and wash, watercolours, oils, acrylics, gouache, pastels, embroidery, collage and mixed media, new member Jane Llewellyn will use felted textiles for her paintings. Like several other artists she will also demonstrate (Sunday afternoon) to let visitors into the secrets of how she achieves her colourful effects in such an unusual way.

Life sculpture, automata, puppets, and ceramics will be among the three-dimensional work in the show and Jane will also have a couple of purses and felted hats in the exhibition. The witty ceramic figures and iconic hares by John Hilder are always a sure fire attraction.

Other demonstrators will include the Society's star miniaturist, Rosemary Bentley working on a miniature in watercolour on Tuesday morning. That afternoon, one of the Society's longest-standing members Bob Bradshaw will also be working in watercolour but on a quite different scale. He has a new style reminiscent of the old railway posters in his main exhibits this year. New member Mervyn Hewish who began painting when battling against cancer before he moved to Devon, will be working on a pastel portrait (Sunday morning) and on Monday afternoon Norman Logan will be doing the preparation for a pen and wash picture.

Children visiting with adults will be challenged to seek out particular subjects in the paintings (how many cats can you find?) and there is a colouring competition for them to enter. They and all visitors will have the chance to vote for the work they most admire helping the artist with most votes to win the Mitre Box Cup.

At the private Preview by the Society's renowned President, Alan Cotton will award the President's cup for the best painting in the show and there will be awards for flower painting, portrait, landscape and wildlife.

The Show will be open to the public from 10am to 5.30pm every day from Saturday 8th August to Thursday 13th August in Seaton Town Hall. Tea, coffee and home-made cakes will be on offer. Entry cost just 50p and includes a catalogue which allows return visits. Children free.

Catenians' award

AXMINSTER Catenians continue to support local Catholic schools, with their Awards for Excellence.

In St Mary's School, Axminster, Catenian Vice President Bruce Kahn presented the Award to Olivia James.

The award was greeted with lots of warm applause, from the children and staff, at their year end assembly.

The Award is presented to the pupil who, in the opinion of the head teacher and staff of the school, has provided an outstanding example to others of all round Christian values during their time in the school.

It is not directly related to academic or sporting achievements and is open to all pupils, including those who are not Catholics.

The Award takes the form of a large multi-year plaque for the school, inscribed with the winner's name, and a smaller plaque, together with a Scroll, which the winner retains.

Canals for Axminster Probus

AT Axminster Probus Club's July meeting, Clem Pryer spoke about canal art, explaining that in the 19th century the poorly-paid canal people used simple designs with the rose becoming traditional and the basic designs have persisted to this day. With the advent of the railways the canals declined and eventually became part of the tourist industry but the tradition remains unchanged.

Clem then gave a demonstration of painting and made it all seem easy – to the extent that his audience departed to exercise their new-found talent.

Prior to Clem's address, Chairman Ray Ward unveiled a newly-produced honours board, the idea of long-serving member Don Harris, detailing the Club's Presidents and Chairmen since 1998. Thanks go to the management of the A35 Pit Stop for allowing the board to be mounted in the establishment.

The Axminster Probus Club for retired and semi-retired business and professional men meets at the A35 Pit Stop, Gammons Hill, Kilminster on the first Tuesday of each month. Prospective members are welcome. For further information ring 01460 220528.

Thorncombe rail club

PHILLIP Bissat was the speaker for the Thorncombe Rail Activities Club June meeting with a talk about 'Travels in Scotland and Wales'.

Phillip has travelled extensively over the railways in the UK, photographing the railway scene as it has changed and developed. Having lived and worked for a time in Swansea, he has also visited Scotland and reached the furthest extremities of the rail system there, even finding a private narrow gauge line on an estate used to ferry those hunting the deer around the hillsides. The talk was an interesting presentation of the changes that have taken place since the 1980s.

The next club meeting is on Wednesday, 16th September, with a talk by Peter Harrison, 'O-Gauge and Continental Railways'. The meeting is in Thorncombe Village Hall (TA20 4NE) and starts at 7:30 p.m. Non-members are welcome, there are refreshments, and parking is free.

Who crosses at Hunter's Lodge?

■ THE proposed pedestrian crossing at Hunter's Lodge where the road from Lyme to Axminster joins the A35 (At last safety improvements proposed for Hunter's Lodge, July 28th) is an expensive solution to a non-existent problem.

As far as I know, no pedestrians have been injured near this junction, thanks be. This is because although it is a dangerous and fast road there are very few pedestrians around to be injured. Can the council tell us how many pedestrians are expected to use the £250,000 crossing?

Obviously, the safety of pedestrians is a red-herring here and the real objective of the change is to slow the traffic. Based on the experience elsewhere, perhaps the authorities can tell us by how much we can expect average speeds to be reduced as a result of the works?

The real problem is caused by drivers from Lyme trying to turn right into the near-continuous stream of traffic to get on to the A35. Speed cameras on both sides of the junction would at least slow the traffic and reduce the risk of death, but the real solution must be traffic lights or a roundabout to break the traffic. Failing that, make the turn left-only and have a roundabout on one of the turnings down into Axminster, so the Lyme traffic wishing to go east could head west and turn at the roundabout. Alternatively, widen the road and construct a space in the road so right-turning traffic could cross one lane at a time. These changes may be more expensive, but there is no point wasting £¼ million which benefits no one.

Honiton Hot Pennies

■ THIS year's Hot Pennies Ceremony was certainly one of the best I can recall and I would like to express my thanks not only to all those that came and joined in so enthusiastically but also to those who made such a contribution behind the scenes.

I was not alone in congratulating Town Cryer Dave Retter and his helpers for the wonderful decoration of the garlanded pole, it was without doubt the best I have ever seen. The flowers are all provided by local individuals and businesses and we are indebted to their generosity.

Thanks are also due to Tony McCollum and his band of volunteer Marshalls for ensuring vehicles and people were separated and to the Devon Free-wheelers who ensured all the signs were in place and taken down afterwards. Last but not least we are indebted to the good offices of Honiton Town Council.

PAUL CARTER

Chairman of Honiton Hot Pennies Ceremony Committee

Weed-washing waste

■ Within two weeks of the slurry sealing of pavements in part of Townsend Avenue weeds are growing at the sides and grass coming through in the middle – an unbelievable waste of taxpayers' money. Had the weeds been sprayed and not merely pressure-washed this would not have happened. Has the rest of Townsend Avenue been forgotten? Work continues elsewhere.

Wheatfields Bakery and Country Store are celebrating

Since opening, Wheatfields has not only provided locals with the wide selection of bakery goods but caters for a variety of businesses around Axminster and further a field. Paula and her team consisting of Sandie and Emma have worked hard to provide customers with fresh, hearty homemade goods and the popularity of the business continues to grow and grow. So much so that in November last year, the bakery moved to the larger premises on South Street and incorporated the offerings of the Country Store.

The bakery goods they sell range from home-made sausage rolls, freshly prepared sandwiches & panini's with a choice of filling. Wheatfields are also offering a wider range of cakes from - Blackwell Cheese Cake and Black Forest Cheese Cake to home-made individual cakes: - Coffee and Walnut, Carrot, Ginger and the traditional Victoria Sponge cake.

Wheatfields sell a wide range of breads including: wholemeal, sunflower, granary and walnut, large white, white Danish and many more. Paula and the team are continuing to expand what they have to offer with new inventive recipes and a mixture of tasty, local ingredients to make the “Wheatfields Bakery and Country Store offer a catering service for private functions including funeral teas. Paula, Sandie and Emma do whatever they can to make the organisation as easy as possible, even though these events are nearly always arranged at very short notice.

When catering for funerals Wheatfields are flexible to account for different numbers of guests and different types of occasions.

Many choose to have the wake, after the funeral service itself, at a family home or at a village or church hall - Wheatfields are able to provide a service at any venue and one that suits the occasion with professionalism, sympathy and respect.”

Regatta Beer 2015

Beer Regatta 8th - 15th August

Welcome to Beer Regatta 2015!

BEER Regatta 2015 is here!! How quickly a year can pass by! I am pleased to report that last year's regatta was once again a high success, with all events well attended and a record number of raffle tickets sold!

This year we are looking forward to another bumper fun packed week, starting with the Dinghy Sailing and Angling Competition both on the first Saturday followed by cliff top entertainment from the Honiton Town Band and a BBQ hosted by the sailing club. New events this year will be some 'Kayak fun' alongside the rowing race on the Monday evening, details will be provided on the board at the top of Sea Hill. Our good ol' favourites, such as Robbie's Races, Junior Fun Disco, Barrel Rolling, Pavement Artist, Sear Rescue, Bingo, Spoofing, Fancy Dress, Sailing, Rafting, Fireworks and Al Fresco Night, are all scheduled so please make sure you buy your programme for full details and keep an eye on the sign at the top of Sea Hill as this will provide any updates or changes.

For me, I am celebrating my 10th year as Chairman, however will I or won't I be around... I am extremely excited that I am expecting a baby due on 3rd August! Yes I know what great timing!! I have been the subject of many jokes during our regatta meetings concerning how far the sound system will stretch and when and where it could happen! Most bets are on Regatta day! All joking aside the wonderful Gayle Chapple is ready to step into the chairman's shoes should I be otherwise detained!!

I am delighted to announce the appointment of our new secretary Dave Lung. I would also like to take this opportunity to see if we can find a new chair/deputy to take over from me (with my full support) as it's always good for a change and seems the appropriate time. We are always ready to welcome anyone who would like to join the committee or are able to offer their assistance at events - we really need your help to continue - the more the merrier and the lighter the load!

Thanks to EVERYONE who has helped this year to bring another week of fun to the village and to those who will be helping throughout Regatta. Thank you to the local clubs and societies who help us with venues and event organizing, the local businesses for your continued support and to all those who have kindly donated prizes for our Grand Raffle. And thank you to YOU for supporting the Regatta; we really couldn't do it without you all. Please attend the events and HAVE FUN!!

LONG LIVE BEER REGATTA!

KIB Kate Boalch

Beer Regatta Chairman

Beer Coastguard

THIS is likely to be Beer Regatta's last search and rescue display to include a Coastguard Search and Rescue helicopter, as the Coastguard helicopter base at Portland will be closing in 2017. In 2013 the UK Search and Rescue Helicopter contract was awarded to a private company who will operate the service on behalf of HM Coastguard, replacing the current mixture of military and civilian arrangements. Despite a long and hard fought campaign including a petition signed by over 100,000 people, the battle to save the Portland base was lost.

From this year The Maritime and Coastguard Agency take on responsibility for all UK Search and Rescue operations and by the summer of 2017 ten coastguard helicopter bases will cover the whole of the UK. Lyme Bay will then be covered by aircraft from Newquay in Cornwall, St Athan in South Wales or Lee on Solent in Hampshire. Newquay becomes operational on 1 January next year and will have the Sikorsky S92 and St Athan (who take over on 1 October this year) and Lee on Solent (already an existing base) will be equipped with the Augusta Westland 189. Both types of aircraft will have state-of-the-art search and rescue and safety technology and increased on-board medical facilities. Although faster, the locations of these aircraft will mean an increase in response times to incidents in Lyme Bay.

Terry Hoare, Station Officer Beer Coastguard

Bowjangles are On The Box!

FRESH from their five star Edinburgh Fringe Festival 2014 debut, the Marine Theatre excitedly welcomes Bowjangles to its stage on Thursday, August 6th.

On The Box! is a witty and dynamic 'TV' stage show performed by this unique multitalented string quartet. If you like music, song, dance and comedy, you will love Bowjangles. They do it all - they leap, tumble, juggle and joke whilst they play their instruments, leaving the audience in stitches of laughter.

On The Box! is a day in the life of a TV that's been left switched on. These four energetic musicians parody a variety of familiar programmes, with exhilarating dance routines and rousing songs. The quartet's flawless musicianship is combined with a witty script and energetic choreography.

Meet hilarious characters such as the Despairing Newsreader and the Operatic Adulterers. While their cherished violins, viola and cello serve as tennis rackets, fencing swords or merely accessories to a full Charleston routine, Bowjangles keep the action roaring and the music soaring.

Bowjangles perform On The Box! on Thursday, August 6th at 7.30pm at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis.

Tickets are £11, £9, or family ticket (2 adults 2 concs) £32.

To book tickets, contact TIC on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

The folk rock guv'nor Ashley Hutchings comes to Lyme Regis

ASHLEY HUTCHINGS is renowned as being a founder member of iconic band Fairport Convention and other successful folk rock bands including Steeleye Span and the Albion Band. Often referred to as the 'Guv'nor' of folk-rock in the UK, his musical credits also include hit solo albums and collaborations for film and television.

What is less well known about Ashley is his talent as a wordsmith. In 2014 he published his first book; Words Words Words; a personal selection of song lyrics, poems, sonnets and other writings that both span his entire career - and tell his story.

An evening in Ashley's company is an opportunity to listen to him tell the stories behind the writings, add detail to the history of the bands he has created and describe some of the many projects he has brought to fruition. Hutchings will be joined by talented violinist Ruth Angell.

Ashley Hutchings

Ashley Hutchings will appear at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Thursday, August 13th. Doors open 7.15pm for 8pm start. Tickets are £14 and £12.

Duo to perform at St Paul's this Friday

MICHAEL GRAHAM, organist and vocalist will be joined by Michael Cann, pianist, for this week's Music at St Pauls on Friday, August 7th. Together they will present a very varied programme for your enjoyment.

Originally from Liverpool, Michael Graham played the organ for the first time at St Thomas's church in St Helens at 15 and was immediately hooked. Shortly after this he was awarded the organ scholarship at St Bartholomew's Rainhill.

In 2007 he began studying at the Junior Royal Northern College of Music studying voice with Jeff Lawton, piano with Clare Cocks and conducting with Dane Lam. Michael enjoyed both accompanying and conducting for various choirs during this time, and in March 2009 completed his organ scholarship by conducting highlights from Handel's Messiah with St Bartholomew's church choir and chamber orchestra at the age of 18.

After completing his A levels, Michael auditioned for, and was subsequently awarded the organ scholarship at Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral. It was here that Michael studied under organists Tim Noon, Richard Lea, completing his organ scholarship by giving an organ recital in the Summer concert series.

While primarily concentrating on organ studies, Michael has been in demand as a tenor soloist. Performances include; Handel's Messiah, Haydn's Creation, Mendelssohn's Elijah, Nielson's Springtime in Funen, J.S Bach Magnificat, Ascension Oratorio and C.P.E Bach Magnificat.

In September 2013, Michael became the newly appointed Organist and Director of Chapel music at Exeter University in conjunction with his choral scholarship at Exeter Cathedral. He directs Budleigh Salterton Male Voice choir, Exeter College Choral Society and is the founder and Artistic Director of Exeter based vocal ensemble, EXODUS.

Matthew Cann was educated at The King's School, Gloucester. Whilst there, he was a chorister at Gloucester Cathedral and later head chorister under the direction of Dr. John Sanders, participating in the famous Three Choirs Festivals that took place in Gloucester, Worcester and Hereford. His further education took him to Colchester to study piano and voice where he gained a first in piano performance. After Colchester he went to Oxford for a post-graduate teaching diploma in secondary music.

Once his education was finished he became a Lay Clerk at Norwich Cathedral as well as teaching piano. He has been a Lay Vicar of Exeter Cathedral Choir since September 2006 and is a piano teacher at Exeter School. During his time at Gloucester, Norwich and Exeter Cathedrals he has been involved in numerous television appearances, radio broadcasts, tours and recordings. He has sung in front of Royalty and through those choirs worked with such prominent composers as John Taverner and Arvo Pärt. He is a published composer writing mainly for unaccompanied choir and has had one of his anthems broadcast on BBC Radio 3.

An evening of virtuoso jazz

THE LATEST jazz concert at Ilminster Arts Centre sees the return of multi-award winning pianist Dave Newton, this time in the company of two of the hottest young names in jazz today.

Tenor sax player Alex Garnett and guitarist Nigel Price have impressed the Arts Centre audience on previous visits – and their prodigious skills have not gone unnoticed by the critics. The Evening Standard has praised Nigel Price's 'fluent, imaginative and technically impeccable' guitar playing while the Jazz Break-fast has hailed Alex Garnett's 'great muscular style and rich, gritty tone.'

This is an exciting opportunity to see and hear a very special group of musicians performing together and it promises to be a magical night of top quality music.

Nigel Price is a brilliant guitarist who performs as part of the House Band for the legendary Ronnie Scott Club in London. One of the most in demand guitarists on the UK jazz scene, he has played with the BBC Big Band, was a member of the James Taylor Quartet, and has worked with Jim Mullen, Ray Gelato, Pee Wee Ellis, and Pete Long, to name but a few.

Semi-resident at Ronnie Scott's, tenor and alto-sax player Alex

Garnett is one of the leading saxophonists in the UK and Europe, instantly recognized by his dark, husky sound. Alex honed his craft working with leaders such as Humphrey Lyttleton and Otis Grand, and has played with the likes of Wynton Marsalis, and the Rolling Stones and Van Morrison.

Dave Newton has been voted best Jazz Pianist in the British Jazz Awards no less than thirteen times! His piano style has been described as 'urbane and resourceful', 'sophisticated' and 'sumptuous'.

The Dave Newton Trio with Alex Garnett and Nigel Price perform at Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, August 14th at 8pm. Tickets are £16 (pre-show supper £12 at 7pm must be booked in advance). For more details or to book call 01460 54973.

Ilminster Annual Open

THE ILMINSTER Annual Open is just what it says on the tin – an annual exhibition that is open to all artists. It is one of Ilminster Arts Centre's most popular events, filling its gallery with a wonderfully eclectic range of art works. Work is submitted by artists before being selected by a judging panel and then displayed as part of the show.

The event, which is sponsored by Branstons of Seavington St Mary, has become a by-word for quality and creativity, as well as being an exhibition that celebrates and showcases innovation and new visual ideas.

This is a chance to see well-known names alongside up-and-coming artists – a refreshing combination which gives the exhibition its unique flavour and makes it such a hit with visitors.

Artists taking part are competing for £800 in prize money and the chance to take part in a prizewinners' exhibition at the Arts Centre in 2016 so the pressure is on for them to have submitted their best works. There is also a 'people's prize' in which visitors to the exhibition can vote to award the artist they think should win.

The opening event takes place on Monday, August 10th, 5 - 6.30pm, when the winners will be announced. Free admission. All welcome.

The Ilminster Annual Open runs from Monday, August 10th to Friday, September 4th, open 9.30am-4.30pm Monday to Friday, and 9.30am to 2.30pm Saturdays. Admission is free.

Whitford's Double-Whammy Weekends

AUGUST promises to be a very lively month indeed in Whitford.

Not only is there the Annual Summer Show on Saturday, August 8th, but also an 'Australian Christmas' on August 15th and 16th.

It is difficult to believe that the last Scarecrow Festival in the village was six years ago. Now Whitford presents something a little different (but just as good) – Christmas in the sun!

There will be at least thirty trees in the Village Hall, all decorated with Australian themes - think Dame Edna and Ayers Rock, to name but two! As with its Scarecrow Festivals, Whitford aims to make the weekend fun, quirky and impressive.

Will there be a Barbie? Of course! And a beach! A licensed bar and light refreshments will also be available, not to mention family-friendly competitions for those wanting to try their luck.

The Summer Show made its first appearance in the 1930s, and is now a lively mixture of old and new. The flowers, vegetables and crafts on display are always of excellent quality.

This year there is also a (totally) Fun Dog Show, a display of vintage farm machinery & miniature steam engines, classic cars, rural crafts and a visit from the super Munchkins Shetland Ponies and Dorset Rare Breeds Sheep. This is all set against the background of the Chard Concert Band. What's not to like?

Everyone is invited to join in, not only as spectators, but as participants if they wish. Children especially might rise to the challenges set out in this year's schedule. Look online at www.whitfordeastdevon.org.uk and check the options - especially those with an Australian flavour.

So, anyone who would like to go from rural England to Christmas in Australia, without the expense or exhaustion of a long flight, should earmark Whitford for both events.

For information about the Summer Show contact Maureen Davey on 01297 553195. For the Australian Christmas, Sheila Bean on 01297 552280.

BEER: Wurllitzer Theatre Organ Show – Simon Gledhill, one of the World's Top Theatre Organists, with a special afternoon of music for all at the

Texan Country star SaraBeth at the Cavern

THE FAMILIAR saying "everything is bigger in Texas" comes to mind when describing the voice of powerhouse Country vocalist and Texas native, SaraBeth. Born and raised in Dallas, SaraBeth is a contemporary country singer-songwriter who is making her mark in Nashville as the sweetly southern artist with an edge. The smart, beautiful and talented songstress is quickly earning fans with her spirited vocals and energetic live performance.

SaraBeth introduced herself to country music this past year with the release of her debut album, "Anything Is Possible." Her music videos found their home on GAC & ZUUS while she became the only top independent trending artist on CMT.com. With dates nationwide, she has shared the stage with Craig Morgan, Brantley Gilbert, Lonestar, Tate Stevens and has participated in the 2013, 2014, and 2015 City of Hope Celebrity Softball Challenge alongside Florida Georgia Line, Brett Eldredge, Little Big Town, Vince Gill and more. Her current project, a self-titled EP simply called SaraBeth, was released in April 2015 and was entirely co-written by SaraBeth.

SaraBeth doesn't take all the credit for her drive, determination and passion for music. When asked, she explains that her family plays an essential role in her story. "My younger brother was drafted to play pro baseball for the Cardinals, my dad recently wrote a book on motivation and inspires people all over the world, and my mom is the glue that holds us all together. With all these incredibly successful and driven role models in my life, I thought, how can I NOT go after this dream?"

Being born and raised in the Texas music scene, SaraBeth knows country music. Her pride for her home state, coupled with her love for genuine, authentic lyrics, has influenced her style and kept her true to her roots. She has appeared on a multitude of television shows including the nationally syndicated Daytime, Good Day Dallas, D The Broadcast (Dallas), Fox 26 Morning News (Houston), Great Day SA (San Antonio), More at Midday (Nashville), Tennessee Mornings (Nashville) and nationally syndicated radio show, The Bobby Bones Show, and continues to raise awareness to her budding music career.

SaraBeth plays at the Exeter Cavern on August 18th. For more details and to book visit the website at www.exetercavern.com

An evening with Esperanto

ESPERANTO brings together two of the South West's finest Spanish guitarists - Jon Boyes and Mark Barnwell.

Following a chance meeting on an international flamenco forum in 2004, the two have been collaborating ever since, snatching the opportunity to play a handful of concerts each year in between their own busy schedule as soloists.

Esperanto will play at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House on Saturday, September 12th at 8pm. Tickets are £12 from the box office on 01460 54973.

The concert is a charity event in aid of Samaritans of Taunton & Somerset.

Drive an EV and you may never have to visit a petrol station again

NEW analysis by plug-in vehicle campaign Go Ultra Low suggests that British motorists could no longer have to rely on the conventional petrol station. More than 90% of electric vehicle charging takes place at home while total charging volumes have almost tripled since 2014 (163% increase), according to new usage data from leading infrastructure provider Chargemaster.

Coupled with bumper uptake of plug-in vehicles – more than 14,500 were registered in the first half of 2015 – the new findings point to the potential for motorists to lessen their reliance on petrol stations by opting for hassle-free electric-car ownership.

Hetal Shah, Head of Go Ultra Low suggests that motorists should consider updating their approach to car ownership: "The reasoning is simple – why should motorists have to go out of their way, regularly spending time at petrol stations, when it is easy to 'refuel' from the comfort of their own home, simply by plugging in an electric car? EV-sceptics sometimes question the usability of the UK's roadside charging infrastructure, but this new data indicates that it is an important, but not critical, facility for most electric vehicle owners."

Government subsidies of up to £700 are available for the installation of fast, efficient home-charging-points; however that's just the start of the savings. EV drivers could cut tax and fuel costs by around £800 per year versus the average car on the road, with driving costing from around 2p a mile compared to around 10-12p per mile for a typical petrol or diesel car. The savings continue to stack up as plug-in vehicles also need less maintenance and can be parked for free in many places.

With the average commute in the UK less than 10 miles, the majority of plug-in car and van drivers are able to charge entirely at home or work, only occasionally using public chargepoints as a back-up or additional top-up for longer journeys.

As well as only commuting short distances, more than a third of UK motorists never travel more than 80 miles in a single trip, comfortably within the 100-mile range of most pure electric vehicles. For those who regularly need to travel further or don't have a driveway for home-charging, some plug-in hybrids can travel around 700 miles without needing to refuel.

Motorists driving beyond their car's range can make use of more than 7,500 public chargepoints in 3,000 locations nationwide. This back-up infrastructure is set to grow further with government planning to complete the installation of 500 rapid chargers in key locations, such as motorway service stations, by the end of 2015. In total, £32 million of infrastructure support is due to be implemented between now and 2020, while £8 million has been set aside for public chargepoints. Crucially, this funding also makes allowance for motorists' primary charging locations, with £15 million available for the Electric Vehicle Homecharge Scheme.

Golf buyers benefit from £2,000 deposit contribution

VOLKSWAGEN is helping British motorists ease into the summer holiday spirit with a new Solutions PCP offer that allows buyers to secure a generous £2,000 deposit contribution. No fewer than seven new Golf models are eligible for the new offer, including the iconic GTI, the ultra-efficient BlueMotion and the all-electric e-Golf.

The £2,000 deposit contribution for customers using Volkswagen's Solutions PCP scheme is just one highlight of the brand's national Golf event that takes place between 31 July and 16 August at all participating retailers. All Solutions PCP orders taken during this period are eligible for the £2,000 deposit – making Golf ownership an even more affordable proposition. Customers opting for the range-topping Golf R and GTD models also benefit from a £750 deposit contribution when purchased on a PCP package.

In addition to performance models such as the GTI that benefit from the offer, customers choosing the value-packed Golf Match can also receive a generous £2,000 deposit contribution from Volkswagen. With the deposit applied, buyers taking out a three-year plan will pay just £219 per month and 6.4 per cent APR representative (see below for full breakdown of costs).

The offer is open to customers placing an order for in-stock vehicles from 31 July until 16 August and is only available while stocks last. With such a substantial offer, Volkswagen is recommending that buyers act quickly if they want to snap up their dream Golf this summer.

To help owners keep their newly-purchased Golf models in tip-top condition, Volkswagen is also offering its Protection Pack at a considerable discount for the duration of the promotion. Comprising carpet mats, load liner and rear protection film, the Protection Pack can be picked up for just £165 – a £50 saving over the usual price when purchased separately.

For full details, terms and conditions, finance examples or to find your nearest participating Retailer, please go to www.volkswagen.co.uk.

Local sport round-up

Cann and Holmes key to Honiton derby win
Mudd clears the way for Seaton 2nds' victory in coastal clash

Honiton 1st XI v Upottery 1st XI

WITH any hopes of promotion gone Honiton looked to restore some pride against near neighbours Upottery and, batting first, they got off to a steady start reaching 91 for 1.

They kept the board ticking along but began to lose regular wickets although most batsmen contributed as they finished up on 197 all out with Brian Cann and Adam Holmes joint top-scorers with 39 apiece.

The home side's reply never got going as Cann (3 for 18) and Holmes (3 for 37) made steady in-roads, Simon Durrant top scored with 27 as the hosts were eventually all out for 155.

Honiton 2nd XI v Exwick 2nd XI

DESPITE losing two in a row Andrew Lapping's men found themselves still in the promotion mix.

Having won the toss elected to bat first openers Lapping and Pete Beighton got the hosts off to a solid start putting on 81 before Lapping fell for 44.

Beighton was joined by Nathan Groves and the pair took the total to 197 when Groves was out for a well earned 63. Beighton finally fell for 75 soon after and the home skipper declared with the score on 243 for 5.

Exwick's reply was steady to say the least and they were always a long way off the pace as the home side's poor catching saw a number of chances go to ground.

However the bowlers kept things tight and a flurry of late wickets reduced Exwick to 199 for 6 from their 45 overs and gave Honiton a much needed win.

Skipper Lapping was just glad of the win, he said: "We spoke before the game about getting our basics right if promotion was to be achieved, our batsmen delivered as did our bowlers but our fielders were somewhat off the standards we have set this season."

"However other results now mean that, not only promotion, but the title could go to at least four teams so it could be an interesting end to the season, luckily we are still in the mix."

Win triple for Ilminster League teams

HONITON with Ann Brown
HONITON men are celebrating success in both the County Top Club and County Trophy.

Last Friday they won their Section Three final in the Top Club competition 3-2 against MADEIRA at Madeira in a very tight game. Denis Hillyear, Malcolm Seaborne & Roger Binmore won the triples 23-19, Peter Goodwin, Ken Clarke, Mike Dart & Mike Smith won the rinks 19-18.

Bill Nicholls lost the two wood singles and Kieran Daniels the four wood singles. However the pair of Tony Tooley & Trevor Pipe forced an extra end and came out winners 19-18. The team now play Culm Vale at Honiton later this month.

In the County Trophy (Group B) the men are into the last 16 and will be playing BIDEFORD VICTORIA PARK at Exonia on August 9th to try and reach the quarter-finals at Topsham.

Other Honiton club successes include the TCL against CULLOMPTON with a 83-61 win, top rink Alan Fuller, Brenda Harris, Ken Clarke & Carol Smith 30-7.

A friendly against BELMONT went Honiton's way 71-53, top rink Carole Stafraice, Mike Critchley & Alan Fuller 26-5.

In the over 50s triples league game against SIDMOUTH the ladies won on one rink 24-9 but lost on the other. The ladies are currently fourth in Division One.

The mens over 60s A team were delighted to get their first win for six weeks and again eight points against CHAGFORD, both triples winning; Paul Clarke, David Lindley, Dick Summers 16-12 & Bill Nicholls, Roger Wilcocks, Gerry Stafraice 25-14.

However, in the friendly away at CHARDSTOCK Honiton lost 59-85, top rink David Downs, Fred Dart, Heather Chambers & Gerry Stafraice 20-14.

SEATON with Maria Johnson

OUR week started on Tuesday with a 110-89 win in the friendly against BARNSTAPLE, who turned up one rink short so our Captain allowed a rink from Seaton to be designated to them, ironically it was the only Barnstaple rink to win. Best rink was S. Warwick, M. Swallow & R. Rowley.

The Over 60s Triples C played OTTERY ST MARY on Wednesday winning 47-32, top rink was D. Ridd, G. Thomas & P. Grigg, meanwhile the A team made the long trip to MORCHARD BISHOP where we claimed the maximum 8pts having won on both rinks 40-25, best rink was P. Newton, R. Rowley & L. Tooley.

In the Ladies Over 50s Seaton (blue) beat SHALDON 38-30 to maintain second position in Division One, top rink - L. Hurley-Smith, S. Rutter & A. Mayhew. Seaton (red) beat Starcross 48-22 in Division Two.

On Wednesday morning the Ladies Interclub Competition took place at HEMYOCK, Seaton hadn't ever reached the Semi-final before and were drawn against a younger, yet experienced team of NEWTON ABBOTT.

Seaton had a slow start on both rinks, the occasion being new to our ladies, but we and steadily ate away at Newton Abbott's early lead eventually winning the semi-final quite convincingly.

After lunch we played the final against last year's runner-up TIVERTON WEST END, it was an extremely tense match with Seaton sadly losing by just the 2pts.

golf round up

Keech just misses out on British Open spot

LOCAL golfer Sophie Keech moved a step closer to playing in the Ladies British Open when she qualified as top amateur at recent The Ricoh Women's British Open Qualifier.

With 75 professional and amateur players competing Keech was looking to finish in the top 25 at the Berkshire Golf Club course which holds great memories for her, having won the Astor Salver there for the past two years.

Playing with one her former England colleagues Sarah-Jane Boyd and Greta Voelker (Germany) she played solid golf with two birdies and a par to turn at one under.

On the back nine she hit eight out of the greens in regulation, and with eight pars and a birdie, finished her round two under (-2).

This was good enough to finish tied fourth but top amateur on the day, and has now got a chance to play at Irvine in the final qualifier later this month where only twelve of the 95 will make the cut for the British Open.

Keech just failed to qualify for the final cut finishing in 28th position having posted a two over par score.

Sophie then gave an excellent account of herself but narrowly missed out on qualification for the Women's British Open.

The amateur carded a two-over-par 76 round at the Irvine Golf Club, Scotland, finishing two shots off the running for a play-off.

In howling winds and rain on Scotland's west coast, Keech made the ideal start with a birdie at the first but returned to level-par after bogeying the 290-yard par-four fourth.

But a run of three bogeys in four holes on the eighth, 10th and 11th severely dented Keech's qualification hopes.

A birdie two at the 16th provided some hope but she narrowly fell short of the 12 spots secured by the qualifiers, who will now take their place in the 144-strong field for the prestigious tournament.

HONITON with Liz Rogers

HONITON Golf Club member Anne Davies organised a special 'Thank You day' for all club members and staff, past and present, for their support, loyalty, friendship and advice over the decades.

Anne still remembers the very warm welcome she received when she first joined in 1974. Since then, she has held a number of key leadership roles in the Club.

Anne's golf competition started from three tees to ensure all ladies could be back at the clubhouse at roughly the same time. Anne had laid on a splendid prize table for all the different competitions.
